

Understanding Regulatory and Shariah Governance Framework for Islamic Banks

National Institute of Banking and Finance is pleased to announce a training workshop on Understanding Regulatory & Shariah Governance Framework for Islamic Banks.

In order to perform at Islamic Banks, it is necessary to possess the knowledge of Shariah and related activities required in an Islamic Bank. A comprehensive, vigorous, and well-functioning Shariah Governance system ensures that all products & services approved and provided by the IFIs are widely recognized as Shariah compliant. This system needs to be clearly understood by all Islamic Bankers before expecting to perform the institution at various levels on the principles of Shariah.

The training program has been designed to provide practical knowledge on Shariah Governance Framework, and Regulatory requirements while discussing issues faced by Islamic Banks.

The ideal participant of this program may be those who have already passed the NIBAF Islamic Banking Certificate Course (IBCC), possess professional degrees on Islamic Banking / Finance, officers working in Shariah Compliance & Audit Departments, Managers and Islamic Banking professionals.
